

From October 18 through October 31, 2024, when you buy any Vanguard Audio Labs mic, Vanguard will custom laser-engrave it for FREE.

That's right, free custom laser-engraving with the purchase of any Vanguard Audio Labs microphone (up to a $150.00 engraving value)

After your purchase, simply send your proof-of-purchase* to sales@vanguardaudiolabs.com and we'll provide you with a reference number and our shipping address. You can then send your mic in for your free engraving. When we receive your new Vanguard Audio mic, we'll contact you for the details and artwork.

Vanguard will confirm your custom laser-engraving with your written approval before we start.

You're responsible for shipping to Vanguard, but Vanguard will pay the return shipping.

*Must be a valid retail receipt or invoice with the purchase dated between October 18 and October 31, 2024.
Valid for purchases in the U.S. only
